

List of Upcoming October Events that Driftless Market is participating in!

(Plus sneak peaks at November and December events and specials)

Friday, Oct. 4th: Hungry for Change Movie and Panel

Kickoff the Delicious Driftless Fare at the MINERAL POINT OPERA HOUSE

Hungry for Change movie starts at 7 pm

At 6:00pm : Meet the Authors of Super Snacks for Super Kids - Dr. Sarah Fox & Julie Stephenson

Panel discussion following movie: with Rink DaVee, Dr. Sarah Fox, David Parr, Robin Timm & Kriss Marion.

Saturday, Oct. 5th: Delicious Driftless Fare : 12:00-5:00 p.m. at Folk Lore Village, Followed by a Potluck and Barn Dance

See website for the event schedule for the day - <http://www.deliciousdriftlessfare.org/schedule>

Sign up for Lange Farm Organic Fresh Turkeys Pre-Orders - begins in mid Oct: There will be limited availability and a cut-off date for ordering. Watch for more information on varieties and availability. Questions ask for Heidi

Thursday, Oct. 17th 6pm - Platteville Main Street Sustainability Committee: Meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month at the Driftless Market. Vision/Mission: To promote sustainable principles and practices that will foster a vibrant and healthy community through education, collaboration, celebrations and direct action.

Tuesday, Oct. 22nd: Baby Food and Cloth Diaper Workshop

Join us at the Driftless Market on Tuesday evening, Oct. 22nd starting at 5:30

Making your own baby food using fresh, local, and organic ingredients is an easy and wonderful way to begin a lifetime of healthy, adventurous eating, and a great way save money. Using modern cloth diapers is simple, budget-friendly, and may actually reduce the number of loads of laundry you do each week. Join local mom, Allison Carroll, for insights, tips, & tricks on these two planet-friendly parenting options.

Allison is a full-time working mother of two daughters ages 3 and 1½ . She has made her own baby food from the start, and estimates she's saved $1,500 by cloth diapering her youngest. Her proudest moment as a parent came when she uttered the words "no more kale until you eat some macaroni and cheese."

Please register by calling the Driftless Market at 608-348-2696, emailing heidi@driftlessmarket.com, or registering at the front counter. Fee for workshop is $5.00 and the proceeds will be going to Family Connections.

Saturday, Oct. 26th: Sweet Treats from 11am – 2pm:

Looking for a safe and fun place to take the kids Trick or Treating? Look no further than downtown Platteville. The event features a large number of Main Street merchants – including Driftless Market - who will happily fill your little ones' bags with various goodies. Bring your little ghouls and/or goblins to Main Street for safe trick-or-treating. Participating businesses that have a poster displayed will have special surprises for the whole family, treats for the little ones and specials for the parents. Be sure to stop by Garvey's Parking Lot for the pumpkin decorating while supplies last and stay for lunch at one of the many great restaurants in our district! Find more about Platteville Main Street at <http://www.plattevillemainstreet.com/>

Sneak Peak at November and December:

- Hooks 15 year Cheddar – Release date first week of November! There will be a limited supply of this. Questions ask for Heidi.
- Nov. 7th – 10th: Driftless Film Festival : Watch for more info at <http://www.driftlessfilmfestival.org/> schedule will be released mid October. Driftless Market will be selling pre-purchase tickets for the event.
- Saturday, Nov. 9th: Book Signing, Rural Alphabet: Signing from 11am – 1pm at the Driftless Market
- Saturday, Nov. 30th & Sunday, Dec. 1st – That Tree Pop Up Gallery – Watch for more information
- Saturday, Dec. 7th: Annual Driftless Jewelry Party: Four Driftless Area Jewelry Artists from 9am – 2pm